REPORT

Ref.: Report on the access to documents requests in 2022

Pursuant to Article 17(1) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 30 May 2001 regarding public access to European Parliament, Council and Commission documents¹, public institutions shall publish annually a report for the preceding year including the number of cases in which the institution refused to grant access to documents, the reasons for such refusals and the number of sensitive documents not recorded in the register.

In accordance with the above-mentioned legal provision, EIGE reports on the handling of requests for access to its documents in 2022:

- EIGE received 7 requests for access to documents in 2022, via email or via the form for requests for access to documents on its website (link).
- Two partial disclosures were provided where personal data was concealed or anonymised on the basis of Art. 4.1(b) of Regulation 1049/2001 regarding the protection of personal data.
- There were no cases in which EIGE refused to grant access to documents.
- No confirmatory action pursuant to Article 7 of Regulation 1049/2001 was received by EIGE in 2022.

All requests were handled in full compliance with the provisions of Regulation 1049/2001 and EIGE's policy on public access to documents².
