

French Penal code (General criminal law), Article 222-9

Violence causing a permanent mutilation or infirmity (performance, assistance)

Criminal Law

Applicability of the principle of extraterritoriality

Yes. Victim is a French national or a resident in France (this provision has been introduced by the article 14 of the Act n°2006-399 of the 4th of April, 2006 strengthening the prevention and repression of violence perpetrated within a couple and against children)

Types of FGM addressed

Not specified

Availability of information collecting system or reports

No

Source

<http://www.legifrance.gouv>

Additional information

Date of entering into force

Metadata

TYPE: Policy / Legislation

LANGUAGE: French

TYPES OF GBV: Female Genital Mutilation

KEYWORDS: female genital mutilation, gender-based violence, legislation, criminal law