

Violence Against Women and the role of gender equality social inclusion and health strategies; National Report Romania

The report gives a comprehensive overview on Romanian policies addressing different forms of violence against women

Comments:

Lists some of the best known programs and NGOs working in the field of family violence/domestic violence. The document also makes critical comments regarding family violence policies: the focus on the family rather than the victim; the over investment of state budget funding for awareness raising and prevention materials and campaigns to the detriment of service provisions for victims which are usually provided by NGOs.
