

Domestic violence and female criminality

Data Collection

Author(s)

Aurora Liiceanu, Doina Ștefana Saucan, Mihai Ioan Micle

Prevalence data on FGM

In attempting to establish an operational definition of domestic violence, the authors state that women can be confronted with particular types of domestic violence according to the cultural context and affirm that in Romania there are no reported cases of genital mutilation, a phenomenon specific to African cultures, as the authors believe.

Source

National Institute of Criminology,

<http://www.criminologie.ro/INC/Lang/Romana/Study/Violenta%20domestica%20...>

Metadata

TYPE: Database

LANGUAGE: Romanian

TYPES OF GBV: Female Genital Mutilation

KEYWORDS: female genital mutilation, gender-based violence, data collection