

White Ribbon Campaign

Alexander Link

Germany, Student

“

Violence is an act of many appearances, whether as an act of direct physical aggression, psychological violence oder structural repression. Though it appears in so many forms and ways of functioning it's never legit to be used against any human being at all. It is our, the very first goal of mankind, to abolish all kinds of violence and therefore especially take care of those minorities and groups of people that have suffered violence for generations more than anyone else.

”