

Meetings with journalism students at universities

The Union is active in universities to ensure that all journalist students are aware of gender equality, both in terms of reporting and in working in the media. The initiative consists of a discussion of a few hours on these issues aimed at stimulating a broad debate among students. The discussions are based on evidence coming from studies and monitoring activities.

Weblinks

Website

Aims and objectives

- To convince the young generation of journalists that gender and equality issues still/ also concern journalism and journalists. - To include gender issues in the curriculum of official journalism courses.

Results and impact

Useful debates with students. High level of attention.

Creator/owner/responsible institution

Association des Journalistes Professionnels

Stakeholder, Firstname: Martine

Stakeholder, Family name: Simonis

Additional information

Subtype: Campaigns to raise the awareness of media professionals (managers and staff) on the need to have women equally represented as experts, reporters in certain fields (e.g. politics, science) and opinion-makers in decision-making positions in media companies

Nuts code: BE3

Metadata

ONGOING: Ne

TYPE: Awareness-raising campaigns/events

COVERAGE: Regional

TARGET GROUP: University students

KEYWORDS: awareness-raising initiatives, breaking of gender stereotypes, gender training, gender segregation in media domains, journalism, press, women's participation