Aims and objectives

To integrate the gender perspective into three cross-ministry policy programmes, as required in the Gender Equality Action Plan 2008-2011

Results and impact

According to the final report of the Gender Equality Plan 2008-2011, the gender perspective has been taken into account in the three cross-sectoral policy programmes, for example through gender disaggregated indicators, gender specific projects, or through making gender equality a cross-cutting theme of the programme.

Creator/owner/responsible institution

Ministry of Employment and the Economy, Ministry of Education and Culture, Ministry of Social Affairs and Health

Contents/activities/services

The ministries responsible for the cross-sectoral policy programmes should integrate gender perspective in the planning and implementation of the programmes. Gender perspective should be integrated in the goals of the programme and reported. Monitoring indicators should be sex disaggregated and the need for specific equality indicators should be considered. Statistics to be split and analysed by gender.
