Aims and objectives

The Gender & Development platform established in 2006 at the Ministry of Foreign affairs, allows the active participation of CSOs and experts in the drafting and evaluation of the Strategic Orientation Document "gender & development".

Results and impact

Elaboration of the Strategic Orientation Document (DOS)"Gender & Development". This 39p. document not only provides updated definition of gender mainstreaming and related concepts (including gender budgeting), but also a complex framing of this approach and its implementation in the field of development policies. It also declines a series of strategic priorities with appropriate means and evaluation instruments.
