

Working Aid Gender Impact Assessment 'Gender Mainstreaming in the Preparation of Legislation'

Funding body

Federal Ministry of Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth

Aims and objectives

To provide government officials who are involved in the drafting of legislative proposals with the knowledge and the tools to comprehensively mainstream gender in the preparation of legislative texts

Results and impact

This method is considered to be clear and very useful by those who have used it. Experts state that it was used shortly after its publication but that it has hardly been used since then.
