

Council for Gender Equality

Aims and objectives

The Council for Gender Equality is a tripartite body serving as a consultative forum for discussing issues of gender equality.

---

Results and impact

The Council has been reorganised by a government resolution in 2009, and the process of selecting the participating NGOs has changed. Since the change of government in 2010 the Council has not been convened.

---

Creator/owner/responsible institution

Government

---

Contents/activities/services

The Council consists of representatives of ministries, NGOs and of independent experts. It is designed to be a consultative body discussing legal and policy proposals and evaluating the impact of past and current policies on the situation of women and men.

---

Metadata

ONGOING: Ne

COVERAGE: NAT

TOOL CATEGORY: Vertinimas atsižvelgiant į lyčių aspektą, Lyčių lygybės užtikrinimo stebėseną

TARGET GROUP: Academics, Civil society organisations