

Training courses, conferences and events

Several awareness-raising events were held on gender equality in general and women in the media specifically. In particular a presentation seminar - 'The role of media in VAW and Promotion of Gender Equality' - consisted of: a. Dissemination of findings from media monitoring on gender equality b. Presentation for media professionals, media unions and interested persons A "Discussion table for media' (2011, in cooperation with Open Society Found) consisted of: a. Topic – sensitive media news coverage on violence against women b. Searching for new ways to manage the continuous change concerning the reflection of gender-based violence in society c. Presentation of the new publication on terminology and crime description experiences of women surviving violence

Weblinks

Website

Aims and objectives

- To disseminate results of media monitoring activities on gender equality to media professionals

Results and impact

Not yet evaluated

Creator/owner/responsible institution

Department of Gender Equality and Equal Opportunities (within the Ministry of Labour, Social Affairs and Family of the Slovak Republic)/ Odbor rodovej rovnosti a rovnosti príležitostí (v rámci MPSVR SR)

Stakeholder, Firstname: Barbora

Stakeholder, Family name: Holubova

Additional information

Subtype: Conferences and events presenting good practices, research findings and data on Women and the Media

Nuts code: SK

Metadata

ONGOING: Ne

TYPE: Awareness-raising campaigns/events

COVERAGE: National

TARGET GROUP: General population, Media professionals, University students, Other professionals

KEYWORDS: advertising, audio-visual, media, press, newspapers, television, broadcasting, print media, journalism, balanced, private media organisations, public media organisations, participation, dissemination of culture, stereotyped roles for men and awareness-raising initiatives, women