

Strategi för arbetet med jämställdhetsintegrering i Regeringskansliet

---

Aims and objectives

The strategy includes an organisation for rules, responsibilities and accountability for both the civil servants and the political government officials, one article in the strategy describes that the work with all government propositions should have an impact assessment (guideline 2) often are the method JämKas Prop used

---

Results and impact

Will be evaluated in 2015

---

Contents/activities/services

The organisation of GM at Political Level:

The prime minister is the ultimately responsible for the implementation of the GM strategy. All ministers are responsible for GM within their respective policy area. The minister for Gender Equality is responsible for coordinating and managing the internal work with GM within the Government Offices. The organisation of GM at Civil Servant Level:

The organisation of GM at the Civil servant level consists of The Division of Gender O3 Gender equality coordinators at ministries and an organisation within each ministry. The Division of Gender Equality is responsible for managing and coordinating the gender mainstreaming work within the Government Offices. In each ministry there is an appointed Gender Equality coordinator who together forms the inter-ministerial group IDA/JÄM. All ministries have separate gender mainstreaming action plans which is O3made on a yearly basis. In addition, in each ministry there are responsible persons appointed for all divisions.

Evaluations and follow up are done through a yearly quantitative analysis (i.e. follow-up) conducted by Statistics Sweden on the implementation of GM within the Government Offices A comprehensive evaluation will be done in 2015 of implementation of GM at the Government Offices based on strategy for GM

---

Metadata

ONGOING: Ne

COVERAGE: NAT

TOOL CATEGORY: Gender impact assessment

TARGET GROUP: Members of the government, Policy makers / civil servants