

media guidelines against racism, xenophobia and discrimination.

The Mass Media Guidelines against Racism, Xenophobia and Discrimination were prepared for the Office of the Ombudsman. The study concluded that it would be unproductive to establish a legally binding code of conduct for the mass media against racism and xenophobia and puts forward a series of guidelines and good practices for the equal treatment of persons regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, language, sex, age and other personal characteristics.

Key information on EU or National policies/legislation on women's' representation on the Media:

Protection against discrimination in mass media

Key stakeholders mentioned:

Ombudsman, mass media

Format: pdf; 24 p.

Weblinks

Website

PDF

Metadata

TYPE: Guidelines

CREATOR/AUTHOR: Commissioner's Office, Authority against Racism and Discrimination, Chrysanthou, Chrysanthos

CONTRIBUTOR: Chrysanthou, Chrysanthos

PUBLISHER: Office of Ombudsman

RIGHTS: Office of Ombudsman

LANGUAGE: Greek

COVERAGE: Cyprus

KEYWORDS: gender-sensitive media