

Φύλο και Διχείριση Χρόνου στο Σπιτι, στην Εργασία και στις Σπουδές

This dissertation studies the way career women use their time during the work days and during the weekend i.e. how much time they devote to work, family care, housework, leisure, personal treatment, social, cultural and athletic activities, volunteering etc. It also studies the extent of satisfaction that women have of this use and how far they would like to change their daily routine.
