

Gender Training Methods Compendium

The present compendium is thought of as a tool box for training provider intending to provide gender respective training. Besides the descriptions of methods, evaluations of the trainings conducted by the trainers and their trainees, are given where available. The compendium also includes a list of fields in which gender respective actions are possible. Methods will be proposed for some of these fields, thus leaving the remainder as a way to contribute new ideas for other possible gender trainings.
