

Lights, Camera, Cut: Where are all the Women?

Article observes that fewer women than men participate in televised broadcasts. It reasons that societal attitudes, and an existing male dominant perspective inhibits women's participation in televised broadcasts.

Key information on EU or National policies/legislation on women's' representation on the Media:

Women under represented in television

Key information on trends and challenges on women and the media:

Women's participation in media

Key stakeholders mentioned:

BAI, Equality Authority

Bibliographic Citation:

McDonald, D (2012, September 15). Independent.ie. Retrieved: 2 January 2013.

Format: Website

Weblinks

Website

Source

Is Part Of: The Independent

Metadata

TYPE: Publication

CREATOR/AUTHOR: McDonald, Dearbhail

PUBLISHER: Independent.ie

RIGHTS: The Independent

LANGUAGE: English

COVERAGE: Ireland

KEYWORDS: broadcasting, participation of women