

The Department and the Equality Act 2010: Equality objectives 2012

The Department of Education's 2012 equality objectives outline the body's five mutually reinforcing medium-term strategic aims, intended to benefit all children. These objectives specifically seek to raise standards of educational achievement, closing the achievement gap between rich and poor, reforming the school system, supporting all children and young people, particularly the disadvantaged and improving the effectiveness and efficiency of the Department by securing an effective, efficient and representative workforce.
