

Referencial de Formação de Formadores/as em Igualdade entre Mulheres e Homens

This training guide was drawn up to support trainers in the field of gender equality. It is a very detailed tool, comprising elementary background information on the situation of men and women in work and in the family, decision-making and citizenship. It focuses on the main mechanisms reproducing gender inequalities and also the constraints on equal opportunities and equal treatment in employment and concerning the reconciliation of professional work and family demands. Thematic training tools are also provided.
