

The Status of Women in Romania: Alternative Report to the Government Report for the 23rd Session of CEDAW, Produced by Nongovernmental Women's Organizations in Romania

Report on the status of gender in society, including the media, in Romania. 18 Romanian women NGOs and human rights NGOs joint their efforts in producing this Shadow Report. These NGOs are active in different fields and cover almost all geographic areas of the Romanian territory. The report focuses on issues considered top priorities or matters of concern for all Romanian women: violence, prostitution and trafficking in women, political and public life, education, employment and economic and social benefits, health, rural women, women's image in media.

Key information on EU or National policies/legislation on women's' representation on the Media:

Gender equality

Key information on trends and challenges on women and the media:

Gender, society, and the media in Romania

Key stakeholders mentioned:

media professionals, civil society

Bibliographic Citation:

Research report on gender equality in society and the media in Romania

Format: Print, electronic

Weblinks

Metadata

TYPE: Publication

CONTRIBUTOR: Nongovernmental Women's Organization, Romania

PUBLISHER: Nongovernmental Women's Organization, Romania

RIGHTS: Property rights of the authors and the publisher

LANGUAGE: Romanian, English

COVERAGE: Romania

KEYWORDS: representation, access to expression