

Regeringens skrivelse 2009/10:234 Redovisning av den särskilda jämställdhetsstatsningen

The government has during this period implemented different efforts to develop and strengthen gender equality in all spheres of society.

Gender equality has been added to SEK 1.6 billion for this specific gender focus in 2007-2010, representing a tenfold increase in the resources allocated to gender equality policy than before. In this publication the Government gives an account of how these funds are used, the measures that have been implemented and an assessment of achievements.
