

CTP - Confederação do Turismo Português (Confederation of Portuguese Tourism)

The Confederation of Portuguese Tourism represents the affiliated employers' associations from the tourism sector. It is one of the four employers' organizations represented in the Standing Committee for Social Concertation (CPCS), involved in social dialogue at a macro-level. It is also a member of CITE – The Commission for Equality in Labour and Employment, and therefore has been involved in social dialogue concerning gender equality and work-life balance issues.
