

Gender-sensitive Parliaments

Domain 2 – Gender mainstreaming in laws

This domain focuses on gender-mainstreaming in laws, such as using gender impact assessment (GIA). Gender issues should be taken into consideration during the entire legislative process, and the impact of the law should be assessed for gender impact.

Data sources: Information from the parliamentary bureau; internal documentation, with specific reference to laws and law proposals; laws and regulations on the use of gender impact assessment.
