

My personal story

R: It was ICT workers' day. Well, we had to buy food for 25 people. Early in the morning in a supermarket NAME1, it was very early, I had to buy two full shopping carts of food, I had a really terrible need to pee. There were toilets upstairs, men's room and women's room. Men's room had a door-plate: ask for a key from the counter. Women's room had an automat which wanted 5 cents, but I did not have a single cent, I had given NAME 2 money for food, I did not have cash, I inverted my whole purse. I found a fiver and went to the cashier and said that I needed 5 cents: I have a terrible need to pee. We have no change so early in the morning. Well, good, give me the key of the men's toilet, I cannot take it any more. But the key is at the counter upstairs. I said, the upstairs counter has a signboard: ask the key at the first floor counter. It is unequal that men are not taken 5 cents and women are taken 5 cents for toilet. By the way, the story ended so, that, as the emergency was so big, I went to take a leak around the corner.

I: /LAUGH/ Outside?

R: But there was lawn, nothing too bad, I could go into the bushes freely.

I: In the bushes you took your leak?

R: Well, yes. I was wearing the taylor-made.

I: Wearing the taylor-made suit?

R: Well, not exactly, but business clothes.

Estonian

I: Infotehnoloogide päev.

R: No, tähtis on see, et 25 inimesele peab süüa ostma. Hommikul vara KOHT1, aga kuna nii vara nii palju, kaks kärutäit, mul tuleb vahepeal kõrvulukustav pissihäda. Seal on teisel korrusel tualetid: meeste oma, naiste oma. Meeste oma peal on silt, et küsige võtit kassast ja naiste oma peal on see automaat, mis tahab viite senti, aga mul ei olnud ühtegi senti, ma olin NIMI1 toiduraha andnud, mul ei olnud sularaha just tagurpidi oma rahakoti. 5 eurose sain siis ja lähen kassasse ja ütlen, et mul on vaja 5 senti, õudne pissihäda. Nii hommikul vara meil vahetusraha ei ole. No jah, andke mulle selle meestekempsu võti, et ma ei saa enam, aga võti on teise korruse kassas. Ma ütlesin, et teisel korrusel on silt, et küsige esimese korruse kassast. Aga ebavõrdne on see, et meestelt ei võeta viit senti ja naistelt võetakse viis senti kempsust. Muideks asi lõppes sellega, e kuna häda oli suur, siis läksin nurga taha pissile.

I: [NAER] Õues või?

R: Aga seal on mingi haljas ala, et midagi hullu ei ole, sai jumalast põõsasse minna.

I: Põõsas siis tegid ära?

R: No jah. Ma olin kostüümis.

I: Kostüümis?

R: No, nii kostüümis ei olnud, aga ma olin tööriietes.
