

EIGE and UN Women meeting on future cooperation

Erika Kvapilova, regional Programme Director for Central and South East Europe from United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women paid a visit to EIGE. Ms. Kvapilova met with the institute's Director Virginija Langbakk and had a good opportunity to exchange plans and point of views on future cooperation. Among areas of interest the topic of gender mainstreaming, exchange of gender statistics and data, support to the process of enlargement countries by developed methods and products were discussed.

“We had a very good and interesting discussion on future cooperation and I believe that EIGE can deliver a very good contribution the whole discussion on Gender Equality with the important work it is to carry out in future. It would be very interesting for UN to see in what areas future corporations can be developed and how the Resource and Documentation Centre can contribute in future”, says Erika Kvapilova.

[img_assist|nid=1107|title=|desc=|link=node|align=left|width=100|height=75]