

Quality assurance and technical advice regarding gender statistics produced, analysed and communicated by EIGE to ensure consistency with EU quality standards

The European Institute for Gender Equality, the regulatory agency of the European Union, (referred to below as the contracting authority) is planning to award the framework contract resulting from the above procurement procedure.

The tender documents will be available on the TED eTendering platform within 7 days of this call.

Note: EIGE is using eTendering platform for managing this call for tender, which consists of the publication of procurement documents and the management of questions and answers concerning the specifications and the procedure.

Please follow the relevant links to gain access to all procurement documents. The documents will be visible and downloadable, but in order to use some options on the eTendering website, you will need to register and log in. It is the tenderer's responsibility to check for updates and modifications to the tendering documentation during the tendering period on eTendering platform.
