

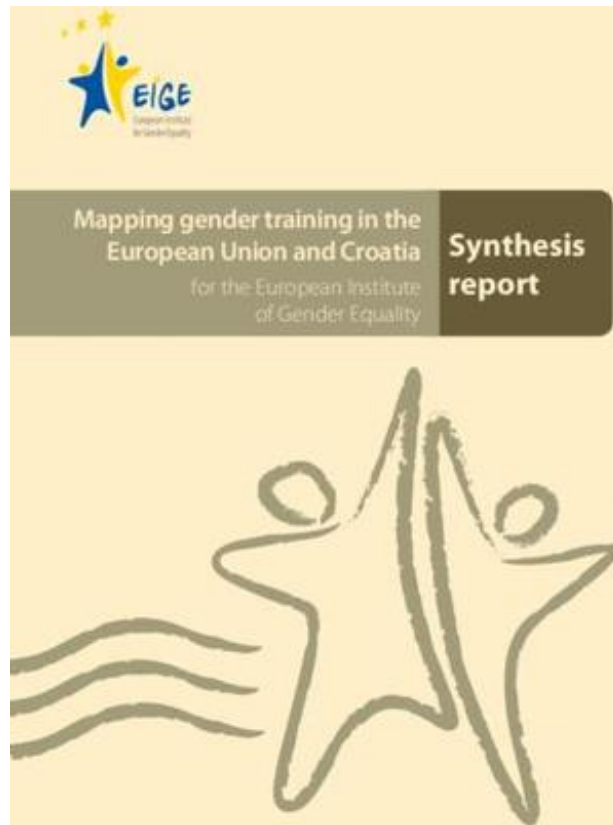

Mapping gender training in the European Union and Croatia: Synthesis report

This report was prepared for the EIGE by ICF GHK as part of the contract 'Gender Training in the European Union: Mapping, Research and Stakeholders' Engagement'. It maps the policies and practices of gender training in the European Union. The work on this publication was coordinated by EIGE's Gender Mainstreaming Team.

Related publication:

Mapping of gender training policies and practices in the European Union: Summary of findings

Related areas:

Gender mainstreaming, Gender training

Country fact sheets:

Figure 10: Overview

The study is structured as follows: Chapter 1 provides an overview of the study, including the objectives, methodology, and data sources. Chapter 2 presents the findings of the study, including the results of the surveys and interviews. Chapter 3 discusses the implications of the findings for policy and practice. Chapter 4 provides conclusions and recommendations.

Figure 10: Overview

The study is structured as follows: Chapter 1 provides an overview of the study, including the objectives, methodology, and data sources. Chapter 2 presents the findings of the study, including the results of the surveys and interviews. Chapter 3 discusses the implications of the findings for policy and practice. Chapter 4 provides conclusions and recommendations.

Belgium	Greece	Lithuania	Portugal
Bulgaria	Spain	Luxembourg	Romania
Czech Republic	France	Hungary	Slovenia
Denmark	Croatia	Malta	Slovakia
Germany	Italy	Netherlands	Finland
Estonia	Cyprus	Austria	Sweden
Ireland	Latvia	Poland	United Kingdom

Downloads

Mapping gender training in the European Union and Croatia
 EN (PDF, 794.05 KB)

Metadata

COUNTRY: Croatia
AREAS: Gender Mainstreaming, Gender equality training