

Promoting women's economic independence and entrepreneurship - Good Practices

This report was prepared for the European Institute for Gender Equality by IRS as part of the study on 'Women and economy – Collection of good practices in the area of female entrepreneurship'. It has identified effective gender mainstreaming tools to support and promote women's economic independence through entrepreneurship. It has focused on training, funding and networking.

Read more

EIGE's approach to good practices

Factsheet - Good practices in women's entrepreneurship

Downloads

MH0214828ENN WEB

EN (PDF, 960.88 KB)

Metadata

AREAS: Gender Mainstreaming