Gender-sensitive parliament tool

Overview

Description

EIGE has developed a tool to help parliaments to assess their organisation and working procedures for gender sensitivity. It collects facts to determine the level of gender equality in a given parliament, thereby highlighting its strengths and weaknesses. This knowledge facilitates the identification of the changes necessary to improve gender equality in the parliament.

Browse the Gender Sensitive Parliaments Toolkit

View the Gender sensitive parliaments video

Publications