

Study on a database on gender statistics

Overview

Description

This study aimed to compile a database of data and metadata on gender statistics by updating, expanding and integrating EIGE's existing statistical datasets on gender equality. It then centralised these data as a source of information to be made available as part of EIGE's online resource and documentation centre.

Browse EIGE's Gender Statistics Database

Publications
