

Rosealley 76

Rosealley 76 - the exhibition - opportunity to visualize the topic of domestic violence for all; it consists of an apartment or room with display boards indicating how violence happened. Exhibition set as a home touches everyone and encourages discussing about violence. The idea of Rosealley 76 is originated from Brot fur die Welt and Agentur Grusshaber and has been part of YWCA of Finland advocacy work against violence from August 2008. It has been to over 20 cities in Finland with over 4000 visitors. The exhibition is usually built in a public place or school. With the exhibition YWCA of Finland aims to prevent domestic violence and encourage victims of violence to seek ways out.
