

It's done and that's it. Somali women's experiences of female circumcision

This Bachelor's thesis based on Somali women's experiences of female circumcision. The idea is to enable the health sector to get more information and experience of how to deal with the women who suffer under the female genital cut. A majority of the women had had a chance to speak to the Finnish health care sector about matters concerning female circumcision.

Weblinks

Website

Publication information

Author(s): Sherif, Mardiya; Mohamud Barre, Zeinab

Publisher: Diaconia University of Applied Sciences

Contents/activities/services

The research theme interview was carried out in spring and autumn 2011, involving eight Somali women who live in the capital city area. The qualitative method was used in the research.

Additional information

Format: Hardcopy, Digital

Cost to obtain the method/tool: Free

Metadata

ONGOING: No

TYPE: Study / Survey

LANGUAGE/TRANSLATION: Finnish

TYPES OF GBV: Female Genital Mutilation

TARGET GROUP: Scientific community

KEYWORDS: female genital mutilation