

Code of conduct for the protection of personal data of women who address the Support Services of the General Secretariat for Gender Equality

Contents

- Introduction
- Ethical Principles
- Scope
- Personal Data Processing
- Basic Principles of Processing
- Informed consent and withdrawal
- Protection of Personal Data
- Employees' Obligations/Responsibilities
- Safe Storage of Personal Data
- Statistical Processing of Personal data and safeguarding of anonymity

Available in Greek language at <http://www.isotita.gr/index.php/docs/1460>

Aims and objectives

It contains mandatory principles and conditions, for the design, application and processing of personal data relating to women (and their relatives) who address the counseling centers and the SOS Helpline of the General Secretariat for Gender Equality, which can be considered important for the processing of the cases.

Creator/owner/responsible institution

Ministry of Interior, General Secretariat for Gender Equality (GSGE), Directorate of Labour Relations & Social Policy

Stakeholder, Firstname: Theodora, Georgia

Stakeholder, Family name: Katsivardakou, Papageorgiou

Additional information

Nuts code: EL

Metadata

ONGOING: No

TYPE: Code of conduct

COVERAGE: Regional

TYPES OF GBV: Intimate Partner Violence

TARGET GROUP: Other professionals

KEYWORDS: intimate partner violence/domestic violence