Accompaniment for victims of violence

Accompaniment of a counsellor or a volunteer from the Association For Nonviolent Communication gives individuals experiencing violence: Accompaniment of a counsellor or a volunteer from the Association For Nonviolent Communication gives individuals experiencing violence:

• Necessary information about legislation, procedures, and institutions;

• Support to handle internal and external pressures easier;

• Chance to discuss their experience of the procedure and to make a plan how to persevere in their path to establish lives without violence.

Aims and objectives

The program of accompaniment for victims of violence to procedures at different institutions (police, prosecutor’s office, court of justice and Centres for Social Work) is one of the programs of the Association For Nonviolent Communication designed to increase safety of victims of violence.

Creator/owner/responsible institution

Association For Nonviolent Communication

Stakeholder, Firstname: Katja

Stakeholder, Family name: Kerin Zabukovec
Metadata

ONGOING: No

TYPE: Counselling / Mentoring / Coaching program

COVERAGE: National

TYPES OF GBV: Intimate Partner Violence

TARGET GROUP: Women victims

KEYWORDS: intimate partner violence/domestic violence