

Poland - Stalking

Who, by means of stalking another person or persons who are close to her, causes in this person a justified sense of threat or significantly violates her privacy, is liable to a penalty of the deprivation of freedom for up to three years.

Legal provisions on protection orders

Criminal Code, Article 41a §1

Legal Source

Criminal Code, Article 190a §1

Observations

If the consequences of an act determined in § 1 or 2 is the injured person's attempt to commit suicide, the perpetrator is liable to a penalty of the restriction of freedom from one year to ten years (Article 190a §3).