

Guiding asylum policy for women and girls in Belgium

FGM is recognized as a form of persecution of women, girls and their parents and is therefore recognized as a ground to be granted refugee status.

Policy Framework

Issuer

Office of the General Commissariat for Refugees and Asylum Seekers

Source

Website of the Office of the General Commissioner for Refugees and Stateless People (www.cgvs.be)

Metadata

TYPE: Policy / Legislation

LANGUAGE: Dutch, French

TYPES OF GBV: Female Genital Mutilation

KEYWORDS: female genital mutilation, gender-based violence, policy framework