

Development Plan For Reducing Violence For Years 2010-2014

The purpose of the development plan to be approved by the Government of the Republic is to reduce and prevent violence in its various forms. The development plan deals with violence related to minors, domestic violence and trafficking in human beings.

The types of violence and situations that endanger vulnerable target groups – women and children – the most and the risk factors of which are often related to each other (e.g. influence of violence on subsequent violent behaviour) are discussed
