

Daphne Booklets: Issues and experiences in combating violence against children, young people and women Family violence

This booklet is included in the Daphne Programme and speaks about children affected by domestic violence in family. It makes a first general introduction of the problem, corroborated by some facts and figures about it, then it makes an overview on European Member States laws that protect children from violence. In the last sections of the work are listed some projects run by associations involved in the Daphne Programme as well as selected on-line resources and bibliography.
