

Ethical Code for Psychologists, Article 5.4 (Hungary)

Targeted professionals: Psychologists

Professional Secrecy Provisions Conditions for disclosing information

if 1) law requires disclosure of data 2) other's protection requires disclosure. In case of child endangerment, Article 17 (2) of CPA applies to psychologists who work with children, especially at schools or educational/care advice centre (see above).

Right or duty to report

Duty to report according to Article 17 (1) and (2) of the Child Protection Act, or if the protection of others requires this

Existence of disciplinary sanctions in case of non-reporting

Disciplinary sanctions in case of non-reporting. Criminal procedures might also be initiated (Endangering a person under work duty, Article 171 of the Penal Code).

Source

http://www.mpt.hu/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=147&Itemid...

Additional information

Date of entering into force

15/05/2004

Metadata

TYPE: Policy / Legislation

LANGUAGE: Hungarian

TYPES OF GBV: Female Genital Mutilation

KEYWORDS: female genital mutilation, gender-based violence, professional secrecy provisions