

Domestic Violence in the South Baltic Region, Kaliningrad, Lithuania, Poland and Sweden

South Baltic - Violence Free Zone project report

The main purpose of this report is to systematize knowledge and data about domestic violence in the South Baltic area. It makes an overview on laws and legal instruments as well as support procedures and various experiences in counteracting violence. It also contains a database of all organizations and institutions able to give help.

Relation: Network of East-West Women

Source

European Union (European Regional Development Fund)“South Baltic Area – Domestic Violence Free Zone”,

Metadata

TYPE: Publication

CREATOR/AUTHOR: The Network of East-West Women NEWW Poland, Kretinga Women’s Information and Training Center, Women’s Shelter, Karlshamn, The Union of Women of the Kaliningrad Region

CONTRIBUTOR: Marija Aldona Juskiene, Mona Olausson, Magdalena Falkowska and Agnieszka Nakielska Marina Matyunina, Monika Popow

PUBLISHER: Network of East-West Women

IDENTIFIER: ISBN: 978-83-926416-4-3

RIGHTS: Copyrighted

LANGUAGE: English

COVERAGE: South Baltic Region, Kaliningrad, Lithuania, Poland, Sweden

TYPES OF GBV: Intimate Partner Violence

FORMAT: PDF file

KEYWORDS: intimate partner violence/domestic violence