Aims and objectives

Working groups are being established along thematic lines within the High Gender Equality Council. These groups are aimed to cover the broadest range of current relevant policy issues in relation with GE, and to promote a transversal (mainstreaming approach). Working groups are also conceived as a tool to coordinate the action of public institutions around a same issue. Finally, WPs enable the ad-hoc participation of relevant experts and CSOs' representatives to the work of of the High Gender Equality Council.

Results and impact

There is no result to be reported, due to the recent introduction of this working method.
