Aims and objectives

The project aimed at raising awareness of equal treatment, including gender equality, among the governmental bodies and public institutions and at building their capacity to develop and implement equal treatment strategies (including mainstreaming gender). The initiative was a part of the project "Equal Treatment - a Standard of Good Governance"

Results and impact

Within the initiative 460 civil servants from 87 state institutions (ministries, local authorities, selected public institutions) were trained. The final impact of the initiative has not been assessed yet.
