

Behovsmotiverad forskning om jämställdhet

Aims and objectives

The purpose of the call is to support research and development that contributes to the advancement of practical equality work related to management, organisation, organisational change and innovation in different environments.

Results and impact

Will be evaluated in 2017

Contents/activities/services

The government has given the Swedish agency for Innovation (VINNOVA) the task to launch a call for applied research for gender equality within both the private and public sphere, gender mainstreaming is one specific focus of the call. The call has a budget on 30 million SEK

Metadata

ONGOING: No

COVERAGE: NAT

TOOL CATEGORY: Gender equality training

TARGET GROUP: Academics, Civil society organisations, Policy makers / civil servants