
Leitfaden für geschlechtergerechtes Formulieren

This guideline shows how to use gender-neutral language. It provides examples of gender-neutral phrasing, alternatives for words that could be interpreted as gender-biased or discriminatory. It is a recommendation of the working group “Gender Mainstreaming” of Lower Austria's regional government authority. It gives an overview how gender-equatable phrasing works. The emphasis is on creative formulations for “language of government”, that includes both sexes equally, but is still understandable.
