

Riigieelarve naistele ja meestele vajaduspõhine eelarvestamine avalikus sektoris

The use of public money must be people-centered, equitable, knowledge-based, effective and transparent. Government budget and policies must meet the various needs of the people, to be centered on human integrity and fairness. Women's and men's needs, interests and desires must be taken into account by making the state budget.

Weblinks

et

Source

Published as part of the Gender responsive budgeting Progress-funded project in Estonia

Metadata

TYPE: Handbook / Manual

CREATOR/AUTHOR: Sheila Quinn

CONTRIBUTOR: Mari-Liis Sepper ja Liivi Pehk

PUBLISHER: Soolise võrdõiguslikkuse ja võrdse kohtlemise volinik (The Gender Equality and Equal Treatment Commissioner) and Eesti Vabariigi Sotsiaalministeerium (Estonian Ministry of Social Affairs)

RIGHTS: Public domain

LANGUAGE: Estonian

COVERAGE: Estonia

SECTOR: Economic and financial affairs, Employment, Justice

FORMAT: PDF file

KEYWORDS: gender mainstreaming, gender budgeting, methods and tools, gender mainstreaming, economy, gender equality, budget, economic, monetary affairs, employment, social affairs, justice, freedom, security