

Le comportement des pères concernant le congé parental et leur participation aux tâches domestiques et éducatives en corrélation avec leur contact avec l'Initiativ Liewensufank

This study was made in the context of the European programme under the responsibility of the Liewensufank Initiative (ILU a.s.b.l.). It is part of a project of the association, which offers support to men taking advantage of parental leave. In this study, the ILU analysis if the fathers involved in parental leave show a different responsibility in their role as father and change their relationship with the child.
