

Emancipatiemonitor 2012

The Emancipation monitor is published bi-annually by the Central Statistical Bureau of the government since 2000. It traces the emancipation process in the Netherlands, and seeks to trace whether this evolves in the direction that the emancipation policy envisages. Domains addresses are: education, employment, income, combination of labour and care, top management positions and violence. It contains an English summary (pages 189-196). The Emancipation Monitor is published bi-annually since 2000. Earlier versions were published in 2000, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2008 and 2010.
