

Women and Men on the Labour Market

The information material is published every two years. The study uses the sex-disaggregated statistics taken from Labour Force Survey, the registers of unemployed and survey on structures of wages and salaries by occupations, to presents the situation on the labour market from the gender perspective. It contains data on economic activity, employment and unemployment rates of men and women by age and level of education as well as information on earnings by sex and occupation.

Weblinks

Website

Metadata

TYPE: Statistics

CREATOR/AUTHOR: Central Statistical Office

PUBLISHER: Central Statistical Office

LANGUAGE: Polish, English

COVERAGE: Poland

FORMAT: Other - text

KEYWORDS: gender mainstreaming