

“Out of school” care arrangements and reconciliation between work, private and family life

This report provides an analysis of the out-of-school care arrangements available in the UK, and discusses some of the main policy initiatives in relation to formal childcare provision. The main focus of the report is on services for school age children but there is also some analysis of services that cover younger children in pre-school education since developments in this type of provision have been more extensive.

Available from author on request, subject to permission from the European Commission

Format: Word doc

Metadata

TYPE: Publication

CREATOR/AUTHOR: Fagan, C., Norman, H.

PUBLISHER: External report commissioned by and presented to the EU Directorate-General Employment and Social Affairs, Unit G1 'Equality between women and men'

LANGUAGE: English

COVERAGE: UK

SECTOR: Employment

FORMAT: Other - text

KEYWORDS: child care, dependent care, gender, gender equality, reconciliation of work and family