

Hellenic Network for Corporate Social Responsibility

The "Hellenic Network for Corporate Social Responsibility" is a business-driven membership non-profit organization. Its mission is to promote the meaning of Corporate Social Responsibility to both the business community and the social environment, with the overall objective being the balance between profitability and sustainable development. The Network has signed a Memorandum with the General Secretariat for Gender Equality in which the goal of equal opportunities is acknowledged. Under the Memorandum the two parties agreed to collaborate in order to promote gender equality in the business community.
