

Malta Confederation of Women's Organisations (MCWO)

The Malta Confederation of Women's Organisations (MCWO) represents the concerns, needs and interests of women from all walks of life through dialogue and networking at a national, European and international level. The purpose of the Confederation is to integrate and unify all national women's NGOs and individual members in order to represent Malta at the European Women's Lobby (EWL) in Brussels, of which it is a full member. The MCWO through its member organisations represents over 24,000 Maltese women and is a full member of the European Women's Lobby.
